

JOHN M. NEFF
CITY ATTORNEY

ORDINANCE NO. 1121

AN ORDINANCE, granting Northwestern Bell Telephone Company consent to place, operate and maintain public telephone stations and booths on City property and setting forth the terms and conditions of such occupancy of City property.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LEXINGTON
NEBRASKA:

Section 1. Subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter contained in this Ordinance, consent is hereby given and granted to Northwestern Bell Telephone Company to place, operate and maintain public telephone stations and booths on the streets and public places now existing or hereafter established in the City of Lexington, Nebraska, within the present and future boundaries thereof.

Section 2. Said telephone stations and booths may be placed in such location as may be deemed desirable by said Northwestern Bell Telephone Company, and may be removed at the discretion of said Company, but no such telephone station or booth shall be placed on City property under this Ordinance until the proposed location thereof has been approved in writing by the Mayor and the City Council. All stations and booths placed hereunder shall be subject to the conditions that said Northwestern Bell Telephone Company shall indemnify the City of Lexington, from all damages, suits and claims arising from the placement, operation and maintenance of said telephone stations and booths.

Section 3. For the privilege of placing, operating and maintaining said public telephone stations and booths as aforesaid and for the electricity for lighting said stations and booths, Northwestern Bell Telephone Company shall pay to the City of Lexington the standard commission as set out in its tariffs approved by the Nebraska State Railway Commission.

Section 4. The right to maintain any public telephone station or booth installed on City property hereunder shall continue until such time as said Northwestern Bell Telephone Company may breach any of the terms or conditions hereof; or until the City elects to withdraw their permission and approval. The Northwestern Bell Telephone Company shall be given reasonable notice and a reasonable time to remove the said booth.

Passed and approved this 11th day of April, 1967.
